Home - School Agreement

This home-school agreement explains the aims and values of our school. It outlines the responsibilities of the school, parents & children.

Children achieve more when schools and parents work together as a team.

Together
Everyone
Achieves
More

At Royton Hall Primary School we expect everyone to

- behave in a safe way
- handle their feelings positively
- co-operate with others
- use friendly language
- do their best
- be respectful
- be in the right place at the right time

The school agrees to:

- be welcoming and keep parents informed about opportunities for involvement in school life
- achieve high standards of care, work and behaviour
- let parents know about concerns or problems affecting their child or when we are particularly pleased with their child
- provide an annual written report and opportunities to discuss progress
- provide an appropriate balanced curriculum and a range of homework tasks and activities
- recognise and support Additional Educational Needs

The family agrees to:

- see that their child attends school each day and on time and contact school on the first day of absence
- ensure that their child has a reasonable night's sleep and breakfast before coming to school
- support the wearing of school uniform
- let the school know about concerns or problems affecting their child
- support the school's values and expectations for good behaviour and homework
- get to know about their child's life at school and support them with their homework
- attend parents' evening and discussions about their child's progress
- support school activities in a variety of ways
- abide by the school's Responsible Internet Use policy

The child agrees to:

- come to school each day and be on time
- behave in a safe way
- handle their feelings positively
- co-operate with others
- use friendly language
- do their best
- be respectful
- be in the right place at the right time
- wear their school uniform and be proud of it
- tell a grown-up if they are unhappy or worried about something
- follow the school's Responsible Internet Use policy

Together we will:

- ensure the children reach their maximum potential
- provide a safe and secure environment where children can grow and develop
- establish open and respectful communication and encourage the children to value and respect people from all cultures and communities
